World Book day is next Thursday! Don't forget to come dressed as your chosen book character, as well as a favourite book to share with your class. Children who choose not to dress as a book character will need to come to school wearing their school uniform. We are also holding our first ever "Leas Park Book Swap" on Friday 6th March, which will give the children the chance to swap a book they have already read for a new-to-them book to take home.

Snow Update:

Snow! Snow! Snow! Please be aware that if we do get any snow, we try our utmost to keep the school open, and a decision to close the school would only be made based on Health and Safety issues for our pupils and staff. Information and updates would be given via the text messaging service and the website. Hopefully Spring is just around the corner...
